Exercise 8E Retelling The Three Little Pigs

1 What did the first pig make his house out of?

Answer: straw

2 Which pig made his house out of bricks?

Answer: the third pig

3 What happened to the straw house?

Answer: It fell down.

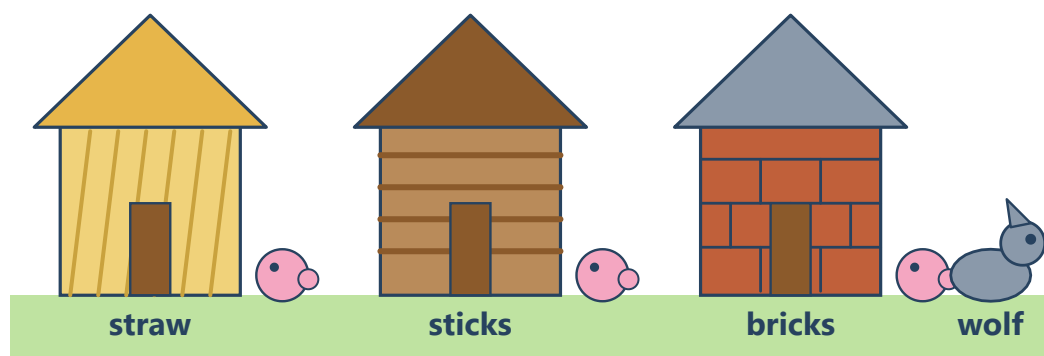

4 Which house did not fall down?

Answer: the brick house

5 Write these events in order: the brick house did not fall down / the straw house fell down / a hungry wolf came to the three houses

Answer: a hungry wolf came to the three houses / the straw house fell down / the brick house did not fall down

6 Look at the picture. Which house is made of sticks?

Answer: the middle house

7 Why was the brick house the safest house? Explain.

Answer: The wolf could not blow it down.

8

Retell the story in three sentences: one for the beginning, one for the middle and one for the end.

Answer: Three pigs each built a house. A wolf came and blew down two houses. The brick house was strong, so the pigs were safe.

9

Choose the character: A: the park B: the wolf

Answer: the wolf

10

A new story starts: Knock, knock! Who is at the door? What might happen next? Use the clue.

Answer: Answers will vary. For example: a friend has come to play, so the door opens.
